

Spain, Born To Love Her

Tell me why
She Makes Me Wait
She's wasting time
And tempting fate
Why can't she see
That her search is in vain
I was born to love her
I was born to love her
Tell me why
She's so afraid
What destiny hides
Is locked away
Why can't she see
That her destiny came
I was born to love her
I was born to love her
I was born to love her
I was born to love her
I was born to love her
I was born to love her
