

Spain, Long Time Ago

One time long ago
When the sun had dimmed it's glow
When the clouds were filled with
Rain and cold
That was a long time
That was a long time
A long time ago
Love has left me all alone
Her secrets left they're better left untold
Why oh why she left I'll never know
But that was a long
That was a long time
A long time ago
That was a long time
A long time ago
