

Spain, She Haunts My Dreams

Oh the feelings never went away

Like she did

Now she haunts all my dreams

Oh love's traces left in memories

I was once alone

Now she haunts all my dreams

Now she haunts all of my dreams

Now she haunts them all

Oh I thought I saw her yesterday

Thought our eyes met

Now she haunts all my dreams

Oh I tried so hard not to believe

I held her

Now she haunts all my dreams

Now she haunts all of my dreams

Now she haunts them all

Now she haunts all of my dreams

Now she haunts them all

Now she haunts all of my dreams

Now she haunts them all

Now she haunts all of my dreams

Now she haunts them all
