

Span, On My Way Down

I'm eating grain as cakes I cough them out again and to tell you honestly I'd like to do this peacefully but they grab my back and they turn the speed to level hurricane

I am falling out in a streetlike bed

(Chorus)
On my way down
they hit my hands up with a stick
and when I lay down
On my way down
they hit my hands up with a stick
and when I lay down

Tenderly,
the slicing of a nerve in me and the wasted ways of those who distorts the art into a pose they grab my back

they turn the speed to level hurricane
I am falling out in a streetlike bed

(chorus)
On my way down
they hit my hands up with a stick
and when I lay down (x2)

Calmer now left inside a crate of doubt and filled with ease
I start to chew in slower pace

But then it starts to blow and it turns the speed to level hurricane
I am falling out in a streetlike bed

(chorus)
On my way down
they hit my hands up with a stick
and when I lay down (x2)

On my way down
On my way down
On my way down, ooooo

On my way down (down)
On my way down
On my way down

On my way down
On my way!
