

Spark Is A Diamond, President Of The Wrong Crowd

Don't you ever get tired of going on
About all the things that happen to you
About all the people who complicate your life
And make it so hard for you.

Everyone around you knows your stories
Yet you never ever bend
And their sympathy is wearing thin
Because your drama never seems to end.

So look out // Look out
Look out cause everybody knows it's true

So look out // Look out
Look out your situation is all on you.

Don't you ever get tired of feeling sorry
That no one can rescue you
They'll try to save you from yourself
But it's something only you can do.

Everywhere around you lips are buzzing
With news of your latest crash
But did you ever think you wouldn't be so cheap
If you didn't drive so fast.
