Sparklehorse, Chaos Of The Galaxy/ Happy Man

if I had if I had more more would be laid at your feet if you give me just a little smile
the dogs on my trail wouldn't drag me back to jail I woke up in a horse's stomach upon a foggy morning his eyes were crazy and he smashed into the cemetery gates and all I want is to be a happy man all I want is to be a happy man I've seen teeth across the horizon fangs spanning yellow against the earth and if...
I woke up in a horse's stomach upon a foggy morning
all I want is to be a happy man
all I want is to be a happy man
all I want is to be a happy man all I want
all I want
all I want
all I want
