

Sparta, Air

Apathy falls in the ocean at least we went down fighting at the bottom of the ocean this scenery can fail calm up till now been riding fine, yeah but the curving walls leave me behind, yeah

do you remember the days?
did you forget those days?
what would the oddsmakers say?
would the oddsmakers say?

[Chorus]
Were drinking on jet streams
through to
ideas won't happen
laid out on benches
through to
sink for this reason

If you see through these motives you'll please report your progress to the captain, our captain so he can mark the atlas never considered this a prize but the curving walls leave me behind

[Chorus]

what would the oddsmakers say?
would the oddsmakers say?

[Chorus]
