

Sparta, Atlas

Well I loved this town like you did
I'll burn it to the ground
Packed your things and then
You were gone
Called a new place home

Like you do
And you'll never change

Well I got a feeling inside
It's going to happen again
There's a fire deep in your eyes
They've never seen before

Like you do
And you'll never change

More than lights expose
Who you are
