Speak No Evil, Get It Straight broke out of line is your day to day nightmare better than before gotta commit to do what you set out for and even up the score

so get your head straight motherfucker get your head on straight ,yea
get your head on straight living out of your fairytale life and your patience wearing thin controlled by your superstitious ways and afraid you're gonna sin they spit in your eyes and rule your fucking world, your mind and your dreams kid yourself and watch it go by, pretend you never seen

get it straight

people talk how they're gonna make a difference and change some history but one ones ever ready to make a stand afraid someone might see

get your head on straight ,yea

get it straight
get it straight
