

Speaking The Kings, Casanova

I'll take you to my favorite spot in this whole city.
I'll lie to you to make you feel like you are pretty.

I'll pull your hair, you'll bite your lip
And have you had enough yet?
Have you had enough yet?

Oh baby I look into your eyes,
You're nervous, you're nervous.
Don't worry baby I've done this a thousand times.
Oh baby I look into your eyes,
Is it worth it? Is it worth it?
Oh baby I've got news this is the best for you.

I'll kiss up your neck, run my hands down your side.
You'll get a chill up your spine. You won't forget tonight.

You try to tell me you didn't want me
But I see right through those eyes,
Oh I see right through those eyes.

And I know. Yes I know. You want me too. Get down.
