

Spearhead, Love'll Set You Free

Seems like everyday gets a little bit longer seems like yesterday I was a little but stronger but there ain't nothin' nothin' I can't do but to hold my ground try not to come unwound don't wanna be let down but it ain't easy doin' hard time for somebody else's crime

(chorus)

Hate is what got me here but I know that love sweet love is gonna set me free all the hatred in the world is what got me here today but I know that love is gonna set me free

Man I been away for so long now I ain't seen no daylight for God knows how long now I come out fightin' when I hear that bell ring I always hear my name but I'd love to feel the rain come down one mo time wash away my pain love like a hurricane (chorus)
