

Spice Girls, I Want You

I want you, I need you
Everything about you

I want you, I need you
I want you, I need you

You could be an ocean
Deep enough to swim in
You could be a mountain
Climbing high, reach the sky

You could be a river
Flowing through the depths of my soul
You could be my heaven
Take me to a place where I know

When you touch me, when you go
Deeper still, then I know

I want you, I need you
Everything that you do
I want you, I need you
Everything about you

You could be an island
I would like to drift away
You could be a picture
I would look at every day

When you touch me, when you go
Deeper still, then I know

I want you, I need you
Everything that you do
I want you, I need you
Everything about you

I want you, I need you
Everything that you do
I want you, I need you
Everything about you
