

Spine Caroline's, Inside Your Mind

Heard, seen, said I'm exaggerated.
I'll respond, I'll defend, then I'll no longer tolerate it.
I wonder how I look inside your mind.
Tell me how I scored with your panel of judges tonight, tonight.

Can you see me? Do you hear what I say to you?
Ah, when I look inside you, I see something about myself, something I never knew.
And it makes me wanna do it all over again. You gonna take me on again?

A pleasant surprise, indeed I find your eyes simply amazing.
Ah, I pulled the leaves from a tree, and you laughed just something wild, your smile is so crazy, so crazy.

I wonder how I look inside your mind.
Tell me how that feels, just another good time. Yeah.

Can you see me? Do you hear what I say to you?
Ah, when I look inside you, I see something about myself, something I never knew.
And it makes me wanna do it all over again. You gonna take me on again?

Yeah, da,da,da,da,da,da,da,da,da,da,da,da,da,da,da,da...

Can you see me? Do you hear what I say to you?
Ah, when I look inside you, I see something about myself, something I never knew.
And it makes me wanna do it all over again. You gonna take me on again?

And, I wonder how I look inside your mind.
And, I wonder how I look inside your mind.
