

Spineshank, Falls Apart

Now your failure feeds the contempt
Now your failure feeds the contempt

I can't sedate the way you bring me down
I can't relieve the pain
I can't reduce the failure you've become
I can't accept the blame
Now

Now your failure feeds the contempt
You imitate
The things you think
That isolate what I want
I can't get through
It's never you
It's showing through and it's wrong

You pushed me too far
And I'm tired now
It all falls apart
Now I'm finally down

I hate the way you turn this all around
So you can bleach your shame
Apology is not an option now
It won't erase the blame
Now

Now your failure feeds the contempt
It's nothing new
I'll suffer through
It's all in you and you're wrong
I compensate
You mutilate
It separates and we're done

You pushed me too far
And I'm tired now
It all falls apart
Now I'm finally down

You pushed me too far (Pushing me, pushing me)
And I'm tired now (Pushing me too far)
It all falls apart (Pushing me, pushing me)
Now I'm finally down (Pushing me too far)

(Far)
I can't sedate the way you're breaking me
You're breaking me down
(Too far)
I can't sedate the way you're breaking me
You're breaking me down
(Pushed me)
I can't sedate the way you're breaking me
You're breaking me down
(Too far)
I can't sedate the way you're breaking me
You're breaking me down

Now your failure feeds the contempt

You pushed me too far
And I'm tired now
It all falls apart

Now I'm finally down

You pushed me too far (Pushing me, pushing me)
And I'm tired now (Pushing me too far)
It all falls apart (Pushing me, pushing me)
Now I'm finally down (Pushing me too far)
