

Spinvis, The Flying Dutchman

(deze songtekst is niet volledig)

Captain Decker,
Flying Dutchman,
Climbs aboard
The timeless space-machine
You're living in
And starts to turn you inside out: He needs you to know
What it is really all about.
Captain Decker, Flying Dutchman,
Gives not one thought
To the state
The world of mirrors is in:
He knows it's your mind to be blown and forever be free
To sail out on the ocean of humanity...
Captain Decker,
Flying Dutchman
Lightning and thunder, Wave upon wave,
Makes you come up and go under, whose is this body called love and what is the state of beyond and beyonder...

Captain Decker,
Flying Dutchman,
Makes you wonder:
Is this me, and am I real?
For you can see what I can see,
If I am free, why shouldn't you be?

A craving hungers in the body
And desire spreads for other bodies To join in the winds forever.

Captain Decker,
Flying Dutchman,
Makes you come and go, live and die,
To share and show Who you are and why:
Born to be free in one breath and another, Captain Decker,
Master of experiences, Turns you on, tunes you in And takes you over...
