

Spirit Of The West, The Walker Spread

Well I kick up my heels in the morning sun
Taking a break from the old mill run
Them walker twins the sure have fun
I've always said twos better than one

Well I'm from Moosejaw and I drink Moose Ale
I'm city born but country bred
I remember the words my pappy said
I gotta get into that Walker spread

Well if pappy could only see me now
What I done, done make him proud
City life I could have had instead
But I got into that Walker Spread

I got into that Walker Spread
I got into that Walker Spread
I got into that Walker Spread
I got into that Walker Spread
