

Spiritfall, Already There

?? my inside out
But only I can take these memories
??
Only peace of mind has driven me

Another passing season
Another mountain in my life
As all that's left has fade out
Nothing in me that defines me

There are feelings left to feel
But only some are worth my time all day
I'd rather sit right by side
And blow like ashes in the wind

Another passing season
Another mountain in my life
As all that's left has fade out
Nothing in me that defines me

In my mind, I'm already there
It's a sign, to stay awake
It defines, who I can be

Another passing season
Another mountain in my life
As all that's left has fade out
Nothing in me that defines me
