

Spiritfall, Lost

When I look into your eyes
And I see the damage I've caused
I feel so empty deep inside
I feel sorry for you

When I try to understand me, I'm lost
When I try to see within me, I'm lost

It's too late to turn back the clock
To the better times we had
Yet I know now what to do
But it's too late for you

I'm lost within me
