

Spiritfall, Slip

you never think I can get through you do you know what I'm capable off?
do you really think that you know me well?

I found an emptyness in front off you what was lost has been found do you really think you know me well?

you gotta slip inside my soul
can you feel what I feel?
do you see why I don't bother now?

you gotta slip inside my soul
can you see what I see?
do you feel the fire that's raging in me?

I never took the chances I wanted to I always lived my life through you and do you really think that you know me well?

but you turned it around and threw it back at me
And now avoid what's left inside
do you really think that you know me well?

you gotta slip inside my soul
can you feel what I feel
do you see why I don't bother now

you gotta slip inside my soul
can you see what I see
do you feel the fire that's raging in me
