

Spiritual Front, Cruisin'

Be cruel with me and show me
The strength and the perfection
Of authority

Dont let my heart become a victim
A victim and the executioner
Have the same perfect role

One inside the other
One on top of the other
The beast engraves his seal into my flesh
The angel stabs my chest with his golden arrows

Im crawling on these streets until
You abuse my exhausted body
Til you make a sacrifice
Upon these violated doors

Your ivory seed enlivens our final carnal fight
And the conquest of this throne made of flesh and fascination

Im slowly cruising until
Your last worst last desire bends my back
Wait for the storm to submit
My proud filthy love

Im slowly cruising until
Your last worst desire bends my back
Wait because the best
Memories die fast

Without any word be clear
Without your breathing skimming my neck
I know your dagger and I will follow it

No kiss of fire for who betrayed my Adonis
And I will throw myself to your feet
Youre playin dices my virginity
Will this be the way of expiation
And the reward of my only god

Im crawling on these streets until
You abuse my exhausted body
Til you make a sacrifice
Upon these violated doors

Your ivory seed enlivens our final carnal fight
And the conquest of this throne made of flesh and fascination

Im slowly cruising until
Your last worst last desire bends my back
Wait for the storm to submit
My proud filthy love

Im slowly cruising until
Your last worst desire bends my back
Wait because the best
Memories die fast

Im slowly cruising until
Your last worst last desire bends my back
Wait for the storm to submit
My proud filthy love

Im slowly cruising until
Your last worst desire bends my back
Wait because the best
Memories die fast
