signing off
this is wishful sinking smiling soft here's to secret thinking sleep right deep sleepers hold tight believers

woah
this is almost sincere let's hold our breath until we disappear [x2]
let's hold our breath until we disappear

my mind's a better author than i could ever be i am anyone
i am anywhere
i fit in perfectly it's hard to fill your lungs and it hurts to hold your tongue when you're barely breathing you're barely breathing

this is almost sincere
[x2]
let's hold our breath until we disappear

let's hold our breath let's hold our [x2]

when you go you know i'll run right after you [x4]
