

Spitfire, Bulletproof And Tall As Jesus your mascara is running doll bulletproof and tall as Jesus baby, you're just another blonde humming along humming along to your own two-bit lullabye you must be jinxed

"never leave a hot minute cold" you're livin' a lie...yeah at the top of your lungs...yeah just another blonde humming along
at the top of your lungs...yeah so dress up your mannequins tall as Jesus to clear your conscience and live your life for one more quick fix but you know and i know that your mascara is still running...doll
