if there is a God
then i want to know if there is a truth loneliness is a torture when there is no one to reach out if you heal her mother
then she will believe
believe that there is a creator believe that there is a God if there is some hope
then i want hope
if there is peace
then i want peace
loneliness is torture when there is no one to reach a generation looking for something ti fill the void that is empty (that is empty)
