

Spleen United, High Rise

It's a way, it's a way if not the only way, man
But it looks just like another one
It's a way, it's a way if not the only way, man
You keep on looking for another one

In the days, in the days when we were young and breathing
We lived it like no other ones
It's OK, it's OK because it keeps me running
Sometimes it's everything that keeps me running

It's a dive in the shape of a crystal
The rise and the comedown
All over again
And I thrive on being the first to fall
Letting the wild out
Letting you in

It's a shame, it's a shame, it's such a shame you want it
Because you want it more than anyone
It's a plague, it's a plague, it's such a plague to want it
Because you want it more than anyone

Back in the days, in the days when I was feeling lonely
I felt it like no other one
In the days, in the days when I was feeling lonely
I used to think about another one

It's a dive in the shape of a crystal
The rise and the comedown
All over again
And I thrive on being the first to fall
Letting the wild out
Letting you in
