

Spleen United, Revenge

everybody wants revenge
say it again

but it is a feeling that we keep inside like the sinner who will not repent and surrender to the open sky everybody praise the lord because the end is just another start and everybody wants to change you want to change

just 'cause you can't
just 'cause you can't
just 'cause you can't

everybody wants to win
you say it again

to just bring back the gold again it is a feeling that you cannot cage when you feel it like a tiger's rage and everybody wants to sin to just fuck the rules and give in everybody wants to do it again you want to do it again but it's just 'cause you can't

everybody wants it all
and you want it again

everybody wants your soul everybody wants to change you understand it's just 'cause you can't

and everybody wants revenge
