

Split Heaven , Danger Zone

Servant for more than one thousand years
The gunslinger rises over the ashes!
This world was left behind a long time ago with none life in charge

Chorus:
Dark knight teach me how
I must surrender but I see the light
Oh Lord, I don't know why
You want me to break off my faith in life

A fearless warrior
Sent by the devil to mark the town's danger zone
The opposing people will be hardly chastised
Don't break up the rules and serve the town

How many battles have passed by and the evil forces have finally arrived
For those who thought this day wouldn't come:
The bells will start tolling and calling the crow!

Chorus:
Dark knight teach me how
I must surrender but I see the light
Oh Lord, I don't know why
You want me to break off my faith in life

Solo I: Ramos
Solo II: Zelbohr
Solo III: Zelbohr / Ramos

Chorus:
Dark knight teach me how
I must surrender but I see the light
Oh Lord, I don't know why
You want me to break off my faith in life
