

Split Shift, Soul

You made me hate myself
I made you hate yourself
Why the fuck do we fight so much
You give it all back
And the confidence you lacked
The unrequited love
You smacked in my face

And im falling deeper in this hole
Which leads you straight to my soul

The photographs
The pictures that just last
And stand the test of time
Im glad I have something to remember you by
And ive noticed
At the end you choked
The life from this relationship
Has burned away
