

Spoken, Sleep Well Tonight

Im sending this letter to you in hopes that it finds you well
I wanted to say I love and I miss you
I pray that you sleep well tonight
I hope you dream of me
Ill write again tomorrow
Ill be home soon
Im a million miles away from you
I cant get you off my mind
Not that Im trying but
All I want is to hold you again
Sleep well tonight
All these miles that stand between us get shorter everyday
Im calling to say I love you and I miss you
I can see the city skyline
Im not that far away
I pull into the driveway and I see you
