

Sponge, Candy Corn

bless you
bless our victorious war i pray for you
blood and candy mixing on the floor
i close your eyes

strings of candy corns

a string of pearls
a candy for each day
each one breathes memories in a hollow man who says, &quot;i hear a voice&quot;

all silhouettes
walk in front of me
they fear your face
when around their necks
i place these candy beads

strings of candy corn
