

Sponge, Rainin'

now and forever
the moment is gone and time runs out then it hits you with the pain things are great on the way up but nobody is with you when you re on the way down you got what you wished for
is that what you really wanted it's how i think of you raining in my house

indecision
problems that took years to build and build and admission is to far away life in a blackout is like life in a storm when you finally come out you see that you're all alone
you got what you wished for

the day you break is the day you're born then you deal with the blame is that what you wished for
is that what you really wanted
