

Spoon, No You're Not

Go knock em dead ok kid im not a man, least not yet im not a man just a pillar of salt on the ground tell us your name that's what they say i ain't got a name just a current address and i said know what you know i never thought a kiss could be so cold so now the pissoff's taking hold and you can tell they're all looking at you feel so inert it starts to hurt so that's your name and i tell myself don't say that you're coming back 'cause no you're not don't say that you're pleased to meet them no you're not you're going back 'cause no you're not
