

Spoons, A Girl In Two Pieces

Youve stretched too far this time
So far out you cant come back
Your public life is torn apart
Ugly mess all over the room

Youve stretched too far this time
You want me to measure up
From head to chest, from waist to toe
You come apart in my hands

(Shes only a girl in two pieces)
Im looking at two faces
Shes a girl in two pieces

You try to reconnect
I sit and wait outside your room
You close your mind and go to sleep
Another year of double dates

Youve stretched too far this time
So far out you cant look back
Half your clothes have disappeared
Since you lost track of your other half

(Shes only a girl in two pieces)
Shes sitting in two places
Shes a girl in two pieces
Im looking at two faces
Shes a girl in two pieces
