

Spoons, Camera Shy

These eyes
Cold from the winter years
Of searching every face
These arms
Numb from the cold embrace
Devoured by something not totally there

Youve been
CAMERA SHY in my life
Youve been somewhere else always
CAMERA SHY, youve led a careful life
Quietly keeping your distance

Your hands
Signs on a one-way road
Directed straight at you
Your eyes
Colder than even mine
As if frightened
By something not totally there

Youve been
CAMERA SHY in my life
Youve been somewhere else always
CAMERA SHY, youve led a careful life
Quietly keeping your distance
CAMERA SHY all my life
Youve been somewhere else always
But now youre mine
No more careful life
Youre gonna stand still for me
This is the pose Ive waited for Smile!
