

Spoons, Clever

My mortal enemy
She comes riding a pale horse
I see her laugh behind her smile
She takes your love from me
She puts venom in your words
She makes you something that you're not
She talk talk
Talks to me
Talks so...

Clever
So clever
She's haunting me
Forever
She's clever

And now she's far away
I bring flowers to your door
I think I'm happy but I'm not...no
My mortal enemy
Sometimes I miss you in my sleep
You may be deadly to the touch
But come come
Come to me
Come so...

Clever
So clever
She's haunting me
Forever
Now heavens
Not far away

I can't look back
All my fascination
No matter how dangerous
I'm not much good
When it comes to patience
I don't believe
I don't believe in luck

She's clever
So clever she's haunting me
Forever
Now heavens
Not far away

Clever
So clever
She's clever
Now heavens
Just words away
