

Spoons, South American Vacation

Weve come far on mighty ships across the sea
Martinis on the upper deck
Unruly skies, a bit of wind decides our fate
Oh, no shuffleboard today

Rented car awaits the new found passengers
Destined for the tropical
Blown out tire, smiling faces in the bush
No, tourists never learn

Hot nights sitting at the terrace bar
Fighting 'bout the next days destinations
Hot nights swimming at the terrace bar
Canceling the next days reservations

Its been hard to keep a sound mind in this heat
Planning our escape
Hot nights sitting at the terrace bar
Fighting 'bout the next days destinations
What I think we better do next year
Well take separate vacations
