

Spoons, Stick Figure Neighbourhood

One Street, One Sign, One House
Thats mine, Thats mine
One Wife, One more heartbreak
One Dog, Not mine

I did not know that was the method here
I would be know of these details next year

Two cars, one pool, one boat
Was mine, Was mine
One wife, too tired she says
Big Lie, BIG LIE

But now I know it was the milk man here
I will take care of his mistake this year

Im living in a Stick Figure Neighbourhood
Im living in a Stick Figure Neighbourhood
Im living in a Stick Figure Neighbourhood
Its turned me into a Stick Figure Neighbour

I did no know he left the pistol here
I fail to note the small details, I fear.

Im living in a Stick Figure Neighbourhood
Im living in a Stick Figure Neighbourhood
Im living in a Stick Figure Neighbourhood
Its turned me into a dead Stick Figure Neighbour
