

Spoons, The Game Above Your Head

Im walking in fire when Im walking with you
I swim in water thats over my head
Im in the eye, the eye of the storm
And Im loving every minute

I follow you to the big white house
To a hall of doors now my minds made up
I know which door which door Im gonna take
Out of here

I sold a million dreams
For everything you wanted
Now you can play without me
In the game above your head

I live on the edge on the edge of the street
At the end of the world in the universe
I dont understand much of anything
But Im loving every minute

I walk right in to the big arcade
Where you play you games now my minds made up
I know which road which road Im gonna take
Out of here

We sold a million dreams
And sometimes we pretended
We did it all alone
In the game above your head
But when the lights go down
And everything has ended
Will you still play without me
In the game above
The game above your head?
