

Spoons, Time Stands Still

Ill walk into fire
If it means Ill be with you
Cause youll smother like water
All the pain that Ive been through
Saved once more
Im luck, I guess, again

Days are passing
But I feel nothing, cause
TIME STANDS STILL
When Im thinking of you
Im expected
And well protected
When youre waiting for me

So Ill walk into traffic
Cause I know youll hold the cars
So that I can come see you
No matter where you are
Pulled along
Theres a magnet below my feet

Days are passing
But I feel nothing, cause
TIME STANDS STILL
When Im thinking of you
Im expected
And well protected
YOU MAKE TIME STANDS STILL
When youre waiting for me

Pulled along
But the hands on my wrist watch are gone
