

Spring Heeled Jack USA, Pigeon-Holed

I am sick and tired of being strung out
Over what I'm gonna say.
It shouldn't be so hard
But when it's all you got you kind of want it to stay.

Everyday I struggle with the ins and outs to where my life is gonna end up.
I pull my hair and figure out it's all I got, so I give it my best shot.

I never tried to push ahead, always wanted to
But I never had a reason.
And if I did I'd choose something else to do.
Because it's better to get away.
I think it's time for me to go on and
Get on with what's been going on
Cause if I don't I'll be stuck here in this song.

I'll save the rest, work it out till it's correct.
Maybe someday I'll have it made, when I get my share.

I am sick and tired of being mislead.
I'm tired of waiting around for my ship to come in full of ideas to get me out of this hole.

I never tried to push ahead, always wanted to
But I never had a reason.
And if I did I'd choose something else to do.
Because it's better to get away.
I think it's time for me to go on and
Get on with what's been going on
Cause if I don't I'll be stuck here in this damn song.

It seems no matter how hard I try
Everyone wants a piece of my pie
And everyone wants to offer their word,
So take me away to a place where they can't be heard.

I never tried to push ahead, always wanted to
But I never had a reason.
And if I did I'd choose something else to do.
Because it's better to get away.
I think it's time for me to go on and
Get on with what's been going on
Cause if I don't I'll be stuck here in this damn song.
