

Sprung Monkey, Friends

well it started out when we were very young schoolyard kids on the prowl just havin Fun smokin cigarettes and tryin to buy some beer the eight before twentyone those were the years cause after All we are
we are all friends

do you remember when we stole the keys to your brothers car we were heading for the coast we were heading for the stars when we saw the Man in blue it was the end we couldn't hang for days but i still knew we were friends
cause after all we are

cause your always there and it's always right as it's always been yeah It's always right right on

goodtimes badtimes
you were there at anytime and that is why you'll always be my friend and i keep saying after all we are
after all you are you're mY best friend
