

Sprung Monkey, Greta

Well bless my soul she's right on time
Dressed to kill she looks so fine
Like Greta Garbo in Gaberdine
Her image on the silverscreen

Well it's elementary like two plus two
But it's animal just what I feel for you

Do you ever want to know me?
Do you ever want to step in my dreams?
Cuz I'm tired of looking at pictures
Flipping through the magazines
Do you ever want to know me?
Do you ever want to step in my dreams?
Cuz I'm tired of looking at pictures
Making love to what I see

The rain is pouring down outside
But I am safe I'm warm and dry
Well tell me now what's a boy to do?
Falling for a girl like you

Cuz it's elementary like two plus two
But it's animal just what I feel for you

Do you ever want to know me?
Do you ever want to step in my dreams?
Cuz I'm tired of looking at pictures
Flipping through the magazines
Do you ever want to know me?
Do you ever want to step in my dreams?
Cuz I'm tired of looking at pictures
Making love to what I see

Always alluding to your offers of the big time
I had trouble understanding what was really mine
Was it here today, maybe gone tomorrow
Was it love that I have
Or was it love that I borrow
But you see that life is just a question
Although largely based on our decisions
Should I do this should I do that Could I make this could I be that

Well it's elementary like two plus two
But it's animal just what I feel for you

Do you ever want to know me?
Do you ever want to step in my dreams?
Cuz I'm tired of looking at pictures
Flipping through the magazines
Do you ever want to know me?
Do you ever want to step in my dreams?
Cuz I'm tired of looking at pictures
Making love to what I see
