

Sponge, Dotted Line

(Verse 1)

I really haven't got a clue
I really don't know what's going on
But I know that in an hour or two
I'll have done something that is wrong
We've reservations
Yeah there are things we need to know
Your conversations
Don't mean a thing perhaps I'm slow
I'm out my depth I can't get out
And now I find it hard to breathe
Think it's best if you just leave

(Chorus)

Man in the suit says it'll be fine
Just sign on the dotted line
He says the whole damn world will be mine
Just sign on the dotted line, yeah

(Verse 2)

It's something that we've all been through
Something that we all know in some shape or form
The fact that in a month or two
There's gonna be wolves outside the door
We've all got restrictions
Yeah there are things that we won't do
But your contradictions
Aren't helping me, aren't helping you
I'm out my depth I can't get out
And now I find it hard to breathe
Think it's best if you just leave

(Chorus)

Man in the suit says it'll be fine
Just sign on the dotted line
He says the whole damn world will be mine
Just sign on the dotted line, yeah

(Verse 3)

My mind's been beaten black and blue
Think I'm gonna have to scrape it off the floor
No-one seems to see our point of view
Can't take that many more
Don't mind rejection, we know we're gonna take a few
We've dedication, when we're broke down we still pull through
I'm out my depth I can't get out
And now I find it hard to breathe
Think it's best if you just leave

(Chorus)

Man in the suit says it'll be fine
Just sign on the dotted line
He says the whole damn world will be mine
Just sign on the dotted line, yeah
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
