

Sponge, Jump On Demand

So you're sat there in first class
Well i'm not gonna kiss your ass
Cause i don't care
Outside you may be smartly dressed,
Inside your just like all the rest so
I don't care
I'm not the kind of guy who likes to go to work its just i need the money oh i dont know why you find that so funny Maybe I dont look my best, at least I fit in with the rest
so I DONT CARE,
Everybody

Jump, jump, jump can't understand it when people demand it
Jump, jump, jump can't understand it when people demand it
Why is it u seem to be looking down your nose at me
Maybe we should take the time to prove your bloods red like mine

Remember when you're being rude
That we're the ones that cook your food,
So just take care
Cause I know it might offend if we were to go and send you chicken la pubic hair
You're the ones that sit there
You just sit there and get fatter
And yet we're the ones that don't really matter
All i'll say is just beware Cause we're the ones that put you there and
WE DONT CARE!
Everybody

Jump, jump, jump can't understand it when people demand it
Jump, jump, jump can't understand it when people demand it
Why is it u seem to be looking down your nose at me
Maybe we should take the time to prove your bloods red like mine
