

Squad Five-O, Get Away

Look in my eyes
Who am I now
In this disguise
Shy away from you
No words to say to you
Can't run away with you today
And if I could say to you
What I really wanted to I'd leave you black and blue
And walk away

When my mind is clear
I want to run from here
When you're not near
I feel like I can get away

Look in your eyes
Who are you now
All full of lies
I know your heart's untrue
I know you're lonely too
But it suits you
All used up and such a waste

can I get away?

When you're not near?
