

Squad Five-O, Restless Youth

They call us problematic, they can call us what they will.
They don't understand the way we feel.
Call us hopeless, call us restless, go ahead now, call us tools.
But this time we've got their number, and something to prove.
Most of our lives we've been out of place.
All our scars can't be erased.
They just don't vanish without a trace.
This time we're gonna stand our ground.
And there ain't nobody gonna hold us down.
Cause We're restless, yeah baby, restless youth.
Here and now we won't back down.
And there ain't nobody gonna turn us around.
Cause we're restless, yeah baby, restless youth.
We got one chance left to make it, one last chance to fight.
And we'll face the odds together, said 'It's all right.'
Take a chance, say a prayer, take another now if you dare.
Together we got nothing, nothing to lose.
They're not as strong as they appear.
All their scars don't disappear.
And they have wounds that never heal.
Don't let this moment be forgotten.
Or else our struggle is for nothing.
I know it's hard to believe.
All these scars and casualties.
Our memories, our hopes and dreams.
I'm nothing but a restless youth, ain't nothing but a restless youth.
