Squirrel Nut Zippers, Blue Angel

Your mama never told you how you were s'posed to treat a girl Your papa never told you now you're alone, out in the world Sirens are screaming inside the winding sheets are pale The devils are dreaming, dreaming of a blue angel

Now I lay me down to sleep but troubled dreams are all I find I pray the Lord my soul to keep I pray so I won't lose my mind Streetlights come streaming on wings tonight I'll soon set sail The devils are dreaming, dreaming of a blue angel

Your mama's gonna take it hard you always were your mama's boy You're lying in the graveyard now you're not your mama's joy Silence is screaming i'll bat an eye and cast my spell The devil's are dreaming, dreaming of a blue angel

The devil's are dreaming, dreaming of a blue angel

The devil's are dreaming.
