

Squirrel Nut Zippers, Meant To Be

All the time of finding ways to make things fall in line
I know how tricky things can be.
But I really do believe that
You are mine, and our stars are there before us.
Listen here, some things are meant to be.

Tried to take it slow
Tried to lose control
But I'll tell you what the trick is:
What you get is what you had to give away.
When I learned I found my eyes were open

Long ago I had a dream that quickly faded
Goes to show how tricky things can be
But wouldn't you agree that
Those who know whisper when they see us walking
"There's a love that's always meant to be."
