

Squirrel Nut Zippers, You're Driving Me Crazy

You left me sad and lonely,
Why did you leave me lonely?
I have a heart that's only
For nobody but you.
I'm burning like a flame, dear.
Won't ever be the same, dear.
I always put the blame, dear,
On nobody but you.
Yes, you, you're drivin' me crazy!
My tears for you make everything hazy,
They cloud the skies of blue.
I do! I have friends who would hear me
And cheer me, believe me, if they knew
That you were the kind who would hurt me,
Desert me when I needed you.
Yea, You, you're drivin' me crazy!
What did I do to you?
