

Squirtgun, Burn For You

far away, voice on telephone everyday slips further away on and on i long and long and sing a song of love out to her everyday i lay awake and dream that someday she'll come back to me i breathe for you i live for you

i bleed for you i burn for you

much to say, but she won't speak a word and today i know she's not alone on and on i hope and hold on to a dream of us together it's her voice there on the line but all the calls just add up to goodbye i need you [x4]

sing a firefly out to her everyday in every way i dream that someday she'll come back to me

far away
she's not coming home
