

SR-71, Transparent Sunshine

A wall of questions
A room filled with answers
And still I can't see
I tear down the wall cause now its the ceiling that stands between you and me

Go out and find
Another man to fill your room
That you can hide behind

Cause I'll only wait a few more years call me when you're not preoccupied.

Cause bright light
It makes me close my eyes
And the smile on my face again is
Transparent Sunshine, Transparent Sunshine

How far would you walk in one day
If I promised you'd never be alone
I'll take the Ferry to Staten Island
We're a long way from home

And now it's time
To pick me feet off the ground
Lean back and kiss the sky

Cause bright light
It makes me close my eyes
And the smile on my face again is
Transparent Sunshine, Transparent Sunshine

Bright Light
and the smile thats on my face is Transparent sunshine, Transparent Sunshine
